Course Offered: ELT515 Using BHMA Product Standards (4 hours)

Whether you are an estimator, detailer or hardware specification writer, sooner or later you will need to learn how to use the industry product standards created by Builders Hardware Manufacturers Association (BHMA). These standards contain a wealth of information, which can be used to establish specific levels of quality on projects. This course surveys the ANSI/BHMA A156 series of product standards for builders' hardware and teaches their proper use.

You will learn how to:

- Find information in the BHMA product standards.
- Decipher BHMA product codes.
- Specify levels of quality.
- Select manufacturer product models using BHMA standards.

Note: Students are required to bring their own copies of the BHMA A156 series of product standards.

That's right, FREE assistance! *You pay the Challenge Exam Fees (which you'd have to do anyway) and show-up, we provide the assistance. Sorry, lunch is on you too but it's still a great deal.

In an attempt to help facilitate those taking or wanting to take challenge exams (see DHI Education Resource Guide on their website for more detail on challenge exams – www.dhi.org) the DHI New England Chapter is holding a cracker barrel style review of challenge exams. Participants can pose questions or review information from their Challenge Exam materials with the facilitator/mentor to prepare in taking the challenge exam(s). You can also take this opportunity to meet facilitators/mentors to assist you in your career path and meet others taking the same challenge exam(s) for possible study partners.

Participants have to:

- Register and pay for the Challenge Exam with DHI National.
- Email DHI New England Chapter at bill_lawliss@irco.com immediately with the name or names of the Challenge Exams you'll want to review so we can plan accordingly.
- Bring your Challenge Exam materials; you receive from DHI National, with you the day of the cracker barrel.
- Take the Challenge Exam; A Challenge Exam is not provided however we'll have a couple computers available if you feel you're ready or you can take it later on your own time and convenience.

If you have any questions contact Bill Lawliss at (781) 453-5323 or email to bill_lawliss@irco.com

Dinner Meeting – FREE!!!

Our dinner meeting speaker will be Helen Rose of Pemko. Helen is the current president of the Builders Hardware Manufacturers Association and will be addressing the chapter on the importance of BHMA certification. As always, we will take a few minutes after the speech for those that have specific questions.

In an effort to improve attendance we are offering this dinner meeting FREE to all New England chapter members ($40.00 for all others). Please take this opportunity to come and socialize with other professionals from our industry. Let the reps buy you a drink and listen to a very informative presentation from our guest speaker Helen Rose. You can't beat that!!

Hope to see you there.
